

Local Author Patricia Canterbury to Speak at California State Library's Lunchtime Author Series

What: Patricia Canterbury will be discussing how she gets the ideas for her novels, what her writing style is, and some of the prompts she's used for her short stories. She'll also take questions from the audience. Plus, she'll read a few pages from her historical mid-grade mystery, The Secret of Morton's End.

Where: Stanley Mosk Library and Courts Building, 914 Capitol Mall, Gillis Hall - 3rd Floor, Sacramento, CA 95814

When: Thursday, August 18, 2016, noon-1:30pm

About the author: Patricia E. (Pat) Canterbury is a Sacramento native, poet, art collector, and author of children's, mid-grade, and adult mysteries. Her novels include Carlotta's Secret, The Poplar Cove Series and Every Thursday. Her new book, The Geaha Incident, is coming out in September. Pat is a member of Capitol Crimes, the Sacramento Chapter of Sisters in Crime Mystery Writers of America; Northern California Publishers and Authors; and the Society of Children's Writers and Illustrators. She and her husband, also a writer, reside in Sacramento.

This event is free. RSVP is requested at Eventbrite.

For more information contact:

Deborah Lynch - 916-651-6452 or Deborah.lynch@library.ca.gov.

Feel free to bring your lunch. This will be an interactive, open-ended discussion. Stop in anytime between noon and 1:30pm. We hope to see you there!

About the California State Library Founded in 1850, the California State Library is the central reference and research library for the Governor's office, Legislature, state employees, and the general public. The State Library leads and promotes innovative library services by providing and managing state and federal funding programs to ensure all Californians have access via their libraries to information and educational resources.

#